copy of the Will of the testator had also been produced. Instantly, the other document produced is the Aadhar Card of the witness.

2. A counter has been filed questioning the genuinity of the procedure adopted in comparing the signatures. But let me keep all those issues open. It would only be appropriate that the witness answers to the issues raised by the respondents in their counter affidavit. There is a duty cast on the Court to examine all possible evidence produced relating to either proof of the Will or disproof of the Will. Evidence cannot be shut out at the door step itself.

3. I allow this application and permit the applicants to examine Ragavendra who had issued the report as a further witness to speak about the report and the documents with which he had compared the signature.
