The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent for the offences punishable under Sections 281, 125(a), 106 of BNS in Crime No.5 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the operation of the offence under Section 106 of BNS, which is the non-bailable offence has been suspended by the Parliament; that the respondent ought not to have registered the FIR for the said offence and that the other offences are bailable.

3..The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) reiterated the prosecution case and confirms that except Section 106 of BNS all other offences are bailable.

5. Since the operation of Section 106 of BNS has been suspended by the Parliament and the other offences are bailable, the anticipatory bail petition may not be maintainable and the same is dismissed. It is open to the petitioner to seek bail in accordance with law.
