The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Section 326(a) and 303(ii) of BNS Act, 2023 in Crime No.185 of 2025, on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 26.05.2025, the respondent police conducted a vehicle check and found that the petitioner and other accused were transporting 49 tons of Black stone without the requisite permit, thereby committing an offence.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and has been falsely implicated in this case. Petitioner is ready to abide any conditions that may be imposed by this Court and ready to furnish sufficient solvent sureties for his release. Hence, the learned counsel prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the contraband was seized from the accused and opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) for the respondent Police and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the submissions made by the learned counsel appearing on either sides, the contraband was seized from the accused and since, custodial interrogation of the petitioner is not required, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the
