COMMON ORDER

The Civil Revision Petition in CRP.No.4094 of 2023 has been filed challenging the docket Order passed in I.A.SR.No.624 of 2023 dated 20.02.2023 in HMOP.No.97 of 2020 on the file of the Subordinate Court, Hosur.

2. The Civil Revision Petition in CRP.No.4311 of 2023 has been filed challenging the fair and decreetal Order dated 01.06.2022 in I.A.No.1 of 2021 in HMOP.No.97 of 2020 on the file of the Principal Subordinate Court, Hosur.

3. When these revision petitions are taken up today, the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and the learned counsel appearing for the respondent filed a joint memo of compromise entered between the petitioner and the respondent. The petitioner and the respondent are also present before this Court today. In the compromise memo entered between them it is stated that they are willing to dissolve the marriage between them. It is also made clear in the compromise memo that they declare and undertake that they will not initiate any other proceedings in respect of this matrimonial dispute or their respective properties under any law in this country or in any foreign country and they undertake that they shall not make any claim against the each other, either at present or in the future and they will not interfere with each other's personal life in any manner. It is also agreed in the compromise memo that permanent custody of the child shall be with the respondent and the petitioner gives consent for the same.

4. Further, this Court, by exercising its power under Article 227 of Constitution of India, restore the Original Petition in O.P.No.97 of 2020, which was dismissed for default, for the purpose of the parties to appear before the Principal Subordinate Court, Hosur and file similar Joint Compromise memo recorded before this Court, so that a decree of compromise will be recorded in the Original Petition.

5. Recording the above Joint Compromise Memo entered between the parties, these Civil Revisions are disposed of in terms of the above Joint
