2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with other accused, is alleged to have abused in filthy language and waylaid the defacto complainant and also robbed Rs.1800/- from the pocket of the defacto complainant. Hence the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person. He also submitted that the petitioner is in no way connected with the alleged offence. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed for grant of bail to the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the amount robbed from the defacto complainant has not yet been recovered and only knife was recovered from him and the petitioner is having 9 previous cases against him. Hence, he strongly opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, nature of allegations, submissions made by the learned counsel on either side and the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
