2.The case of the prosecution is that the accused induced the defacto complainant by assuring permanent employment in an IT Company for his son and received a sum of Rs.2,25,000/- from him, and thereafter, cheated him. Hence the case.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution and they have been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioners had borrowed money from the defacto complainant and they are ready to repay the same. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.
