2. The only grievance of the petitioner is that in the impugned order dated 30.05.2025, does not speak about the regularization of the petitioner's suspension period.

3. At this juncture, the learned Central Government Standing Counsel for the 1st respondent would contend that the impugned order is no way prejudice to the petitioner and no right would be infringed, as the said order is only a communication. He would also submit that they will pass order regulating the suspension period of 18.01.2002 to 31.05.2025, within a reasonable time.

4. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Central Government Standing Counsel for the 1st respondent and the learned counsel for the 2nd and 3rd respondents and perused the materials available on record.

5. Considering the submission of the learned Central Government Standing Counsel, this Court deems it appropriate to direct the respondents to pass order to regulate suspension period between 18.01.2022 to
