3. On a perusal of the records, it is seen the dispute between the parties is civil in nature. The Writ Court cannot conduct a roving enquiry and find out the correctness of the right and interest over the property. Further, police protection cannot be extended to the individuals in their property disputes. This Court is not inclined to grant the relief as sought for by the petitioner in this writ petition. However, the petitioner is at liberty to work out his remedy in the manner known to law before the competent civil Court.

4. In view of the above, this Writ Petition is dismissed. No costs.
