2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner had promised to secure a job for the defacto complainant and received a sum of Rs.4,20,021/- on various dates and thereafter failed to fulfil the promise nor returned the amount.

Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he has been falsely implicated in this case. The learned counsel further submitted that the petitioner is suffering incarceration from 20.05.2025, and on instructions, he further submits that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court for his release. Hence, he prayed for grant of bail to the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and on instruction submitted that further complainants have been received and the case is under investigation, at this stage, if the petitioner is released on bail, there are every possibilities for tampering the witnesses and hampering the investigation, thereby, he strongly opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. The learned counsel for the intervenor raised strong objection for grant of bail to the petitioner alleging the gravity of offence committed by the petitioner.

6. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

7. Considering the facts and circumstances of this case, the stage of investigation and the gravity of offence, this Court is not inclined to grant the relief sought for by the petitioner.

8. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition stands dismissed.
