are in lawful possession and enjoyment of the same. The said Survey number was further sub-divided as S.F.No.92/6, herein after referred to as the subject property. When the petitioner intend to construct a house in the aforesaid property, the petitioners have applied for planning approval before the Corporation of Chennai on 29.09.2020 for building approval and paid the necessary fee also. The second respondent has forwarded the application to the 1st respondent for want of “No Objection Certificate” from the first respondent, but till date the first respondent has not issued the NOC. Further, a demand advice dated 12.10.2020 was issued to the petitioners calling upon them to pay fees. It is also stated that the petitioners' father applied planning approval for Plot No.1 in the same survey number and in the same village and the 2nd respondent has already granted planning permission without insisting N.O.C from the first respondent. Since 2020 onwards the petitioners are approaching the respondents continuously, however, no planning permission has been granted by the respondents. Aggrieved by the same, the petitioner made a representation to the second respondent on 20.06.2023, seeking for grant of planning approval. Despite the receipt of the representation, no action has been taken by the respondents. Hence, the petitioner had filed the present Writ

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that, in similar issue this Court in WP No. 5285 of 2024, dated 24.03.2025 passed an order by directing the Committee to consider the application submitted by the petitioner therein on merits, in accordance with law, and pass appropriate orders within a period of six months from the date of receipt of a copy of this order.
