PRAYER: This Writ Petition filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India for issuance of a Writ of Certiorari, calling for the records in the order bearing No.TNPCS/3745/2025-EW-3-9 dated 24.05.2025 passed by respondent

No.1 and the consequential order bearing No.CP/VLR/959/2025-so far as the petitioner is concerned.

For Petitioner: Mr.M.Radhakrishnan

Additional Government Pleader

ORDER

The instant writ petition has been filed, challenging the order dated 24.05.2025 passed by the first respondent, and also the consequential order dated 25.05.2025 passed by the second respondent, by and in which, the petitioner has been transferred from Central Prison, Vellore to the Central Prison, Coimbatore.

3. It is the specific submission of the learned counsel for the petitioner that the petitioner has aged parents with medical issues and particularly his mother has been undergoing periodical dialysis at Vellore Hospital. The petitioner's presence in Vellore would be of immense help in taking care of his aged parents. He further submitted that the transfer has been effected mechanically, without even considering the petitioner's grievance. Apart from the above ground, the petitioner raised educational aspect of his children also. Hence, he prayed to interfere with the impugned order.

4. Per contra, Mr.R.U.Dinesh Raj Kumar, learned Additional Government Pleader appearing for the respondents, strongly opposed the contention made by the learned counsel for the petitioner and submitted that the transfer of the petitioner is an administrative transfer, which takes place at a regular interval.

5. I have given my anxious consideration to the submission made by the learned counsel on either side, and perused the materials available on record.

6. It is well settled principle of law that transfer can be challenged only on the ground of mala fides or if the same is against the public interest.

7. In the case on hand, it is the specific submission of the respondents that the transfer of the petitioner is merely an administrative transfer. However, the learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner's presence at Vellore, would be of immense help to his aged parents.

8. Though this Court does not find any merit in the impugned orders dated 24.05.2025 and 25.05.2025, since the petitioner had already given representation on 06.06.2025, the respondents are directed to consider the same and pass orders on its own merits and in accordance with law, within a period of two (2) weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order.

9. In the result, this Writ Petition is dismissed with the above directions. No costs. Consequently, connected Miscellaneous Petitions are closed.
