3.Accordingly, this application is closed since the applicant has been unable to re-possess the vehicle despite this Court's order passed as early as on 18.07.2024 and despite this Court having granted several extensions for executing the warrant of commission.

5.While considering the fresh application to be filed by the applicant in the near future, this Court will consider retaining the very same Commissioner appointed by this Court in this application as the applicant has already paid the Advocate Commissioner's initial remuneration of Rs.20,000/-.
