This Criminal Miscellaneous Petition has been filed praying to suspend the sentence in SC.No.6 of 2022 dated 04.10.2024 on the file of the Sessions Judge, Magalir Neethimandram, Udhagamandalam, The Nilgiris and to grant bail to the petitioner.

2. The petitioner is the accused in SC.No.6 of 2022 on the file of the Sessions Judge, Magalir Neethimandram, Udhagamandalam, The Nilgiris. He was found guilty of the offences under Section 9 (m) r/w 10 of POCSO Act and Section 451 of IPC and he has been convicted and sentenced as under:

| S.No. | Conviction                        | Sentence                                                                                                                          |
|-------|-----------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1     | Section 9 (m) r/w 10 of POCSO Act | to undergo five years rigorous imprisonment and to pay fine of Rs.2,000/-, in default to undergo three months simple imprisonment |
| 2.    | Section 451 of IPC                | to undergo two years rigorous imprisonment and to pay fine of Rs.2,000/-, in default to undergo two months simple imprisonment    |

Aggrieved by the same, the petitioner has filed criminal appeal along with the present miscellaneous petition.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner/accused would submit that there are arguable points available in the Criminal Appeal and the petitioner/accused has got a fair chance of succeeding in the Criminal Appeal and hence, the substantive sentence imposed against the petitioner/accused may be suspended. He would submit that the petitioner is ready to abide the condition imposed by this Court.

4. Per contra, the learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent/State raised serious objection for allowing this petition. Further, he would contend that the evidences recorded from the prosecution witnesses would prove the case of the prosecution beyond reasonable doubt. According to him, interference of this Court is not necessary in the findings arrived at by the trial Court.

5. Heard the learned counsel appearing on either side and also perused the materials placed on record.

6. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case coupled with the quantum of punishment imposed upon the petitioner, also by considering the submissions of the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent police, further this criminal appeal is not likely to be taken for final hearing in the near future, this Court is of the view that the substantive sentence of imprisonment alone can be suspended on certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, till the disposal of the Criminal Appeal, the substantive sentence of imprisonment imposed by the learned trial Judge is alone suspended and bail are granted on the following conditions:

(a) The petitioner/accused is ordered to be released on bail, on his executing a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Sessions Judge, Magalir Neethimandram, Udhagamandalam, The Nilgiris.

(b) The petitioner/accused and the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impressions in the surety bonds and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhaar Cards or Bank Pass Books to ensure their identities.

(c) The petitioner shall appear before the Trial Court daily at 10.30 a.m. for a period of 30 days and thereafter appear
