3. Though several grounds have been raised in this Writ Petition, we have taken into account of the fact that the petitioner's wife had prematurely delivered twin babies, and on a sympathetic consideration, when we had indicated to the petitioner as to whether he would be willing to join the place to which he has been transfered, after one year, he had accepted the offer and has also filed a duly signed affidavit dated 03.07.2025 to that effect. The relevant portion of the affidavit reads as follows:

"3. I respectfully submit that because of the family circumstances and for taking care of the twin infant male child, I could not move out from Chennai. Therefore, I may be retained at Chennai for another one more year. I undertake to accept any transfers made after one year as per the transfer policy of ESIC."

4. The aforesaid affidavit is hereby recorded. Consequently, the relieving order issued to the petitioner herein dated 20.05.2025 and 13.06.2025, pursuant to the transfer order dated 06.06.2024, shall be kept in abeyance. The respondent shall pass fresh orders directing the petitioner to join either at ESICH, Tirunelveli, or any other station, with effect from 03.07.2026. Both parties shall bring the present order to the
