2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with other accused assaulted the defacto complainant's brother using hands and also abused him in a filthy language. Hence the case.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the petitioner is innocent and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready to abide any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) for the respondent Police and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, nature of allegations, submissions made by the learned counsel appearing on either sides, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
