ORDER

The instant writ petition has been filed challenging the order dated 30.05.2025 passed by the first respondent.

2. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the impugned order of termination has been passed without giving any notice to the petitioner.

3. At this juncture, the learned Government Advocate appearing for the first respondent would vehemently submit that the impugned order is consequential one, and has been passed in pursuance of the order in W.P.No.19291 of 2017 dated 15.09.2022, wherein this Court has quashed the appointment order issued against the petitioner. He would also submit that they have given notice to the petitioner and they have also got an explanation from the petitioner, which has also been referred in the impugned order. Hence, there is no ground to interfere with the impugned order.

4. I have given my anxious consideration to the submissions made on either side.

5. The main objection putforth by the petitioner is that the Writ Appeal against the order of the Writ Petition in W.P.No.19291 of 2017 has been allowed by order dated 14.02.2025 passed by the Division Bench of this Court. However, he would fairly submit that the order in Writ Appeal has not interfered with the order in the Writ Petition.

6. In such circumstances, there is duty cast upon the authority concerned to comply with the direction of this Court passed in W.P.No.19291 of 2017 and they have rightly complied with the same through the impugned order dated 30.05.2025. In such view of the position, the petitioner's claim does not have any right to challenge the impugned order as the cancellation of her appointment itself has attained finality in the Writ Appeal. Therefore, this Court does not find any merit in the Writ Petition.
