2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with other accused snatched the defacto-complainant's mobile phone from his shirt pocket. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioner is in judicial custody from 28.05.2025 and hence, further custody of the petitioner is not required. Hence, he prayed for grant of bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and opposed for grant of bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, the submission of learned counsels on both sides and the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
