2. Despite service of notice on the respondent, the respondent/ husband failed to appear before this Court either in person or through counsel. Hence, the respondent is called and set ex-parte.

3. I have heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and I have also gone through the affidavit filed in support of this transfer petition.

4. The major grievance of the petitioner/wife is that the petitioner is an ordinary resident of Pallikaranai, Chennai and in order to enable her to attend the HMOP proceedings, the petitioner now seeks transfer of HMOP.No.59 of 2025 to the file of the Sub Court, Alandur, Chengalpattu District. The petitioner also set out inconvenience to travel long distance to attend the HMOP proceedings before the Family Court, Nagercoil.

5. Further, in any event, since the HMOP is sought to be transferred to Sub Court, Alandur, the presence of the respondent/ husband will also not be required during all hearing dates and therefore, no prejudice would be caused to the respondent/husband, if the present Transfer CMP is
