2. Heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner, the learned Senior Counsel appearing for the private respondents and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the official respondents and perused the materials available on record.

3. On a perusal of the records it is seen that the petitioner challenged the order dated 23.4.2025 passed by the second respondent. The third respondent herein had already filed a complaint as against the petitioner and others and the same was registered in Crime No.139 of 2025 on 08.5.2025. Pending investigation, the second respondent passed the impugned order on the complaint given by the fourth respondent herein as against the petitioner.

4. On a reading of the impugned order dated 23.4.2025, it is seen that the second respondent, without jurisdiction, had passed the impugned order and hence the same is liable to be set aside. Accordingly, the same is set aside. However, the respondent-Police is directed to conduct investigation based on the registration of F.I.R and proceed the
