2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner is an Ambulance Driver. On 10.06.2025, when the deceased namely Neelavathi who is aged about 66 years was crossing the road, the petitioner drove the Ambulance in a rush and negligent manner and hit against her and caused injuries. Thereafter, she died on the same day. The defacto-complainant is the son of the deceased. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. The petitioner is in judicial custody from 10.06.2025 and hence, further custody of the petitioner is not required. Hence, he prayed for grant of bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and opposed for grant of bail to the petitioner.

5.At this juncture, the learned counsel for the petitioner voluntarily
