Crl.O.P.No.18836 of 2025

Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita Act 2003 and under Sections 24(I) Cigarette and Others Tobacco Products Acts 2003 in Crime No.391 of 2024 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that based on the secret information received by the respondent police that the petitioner was transporting prohibited tobacco products, the respondent police/Sub-Inspector blocked the petitioner's car. The petitioner abused in filthy language and hit the defacto complainant by his car and fled away. The defacto Complainant sustained heavy injuries including bone fracture. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. The petitioner is ready to abide any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, the learned counsel prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that the petitioner had hit the defacto Complainant with his car which resulted in severe injuries to the defacto Complainant including bone fracture. The petitioner has two previous cases, similar in nature. Hence, he vehemently opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) for the respondent Police and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, submissions made by the learned counsel appearing on either sides, nature of allegation, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate-II, Villupuram on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, and on proof of payment of deposits, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:

[a] if the petitioner fails to surrender before the said Magistrate within a period of fifteen days, this Order shall stand automatically cancelled;
