JUDGMENT

(Delivered by S.S.Sundar J.)

(1) This appeal is directed against the order of the learned Single Judge dated 14.07.2022 made in RA.No.199/2018 in WP.No.27373/2011.

(2) It is admitted by the learned counsel for the respondents that the review was on the basis of a few other workmen for whom the regularisation was with effect from 05.08.2005.

(3) The scope of review is limited. This Court has repeatedly held that review is not an appeal in disguise and a person cannot seek rehearing or review merely because a different view is possible or the order passed earlier is erroneous.

(4) In the present case, it is admitted that some of the facts had not been brought to the notice of the learned Single Judge when the writ petition was decided in favour of the writ petitioner. That cannot be a ground for reviewing the earlier order.

(5) Therefore, this Court is of the view that the order in the review application in RA.No.199/2018 in WP.No.27373/2011 is in order. Giving liberty to the respondents to file an appeal as against the original order passed in the writ petition dated 19.04.2018 in WP.No.27373/2011, this writ appeal stands dismissed.

(6) The time during which the review application as well as this writ appeal are pending, shall be excluded for the purpose of limitation. No costs.
