2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with other accused had waylaid the de facto complainant and robbed a sum of Rs.2000/- from him at knife point and threatened him with dire consequences. Hence, the case.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He submits that he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court.. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the petitioner along with other accused had waylaid the defacto complainant and robbed a sum of Rs.2,000/- from him at knife point and also threatened him with dire consequences. He also submitted that petitioner is an history sheeter and four previous cases were pending against the petitioner out of which, two got acquitted, one resulted in conviction and one is registered under Section 309(4) of IPC. Hence, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.
