ORDER

The petitioner herein apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 406, 420 of IPC, in Crime No.28 of 2025, on the file of the respondent Police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The allegation against the petitioner is that the petitioner, who is running an MLI Manpower Agency, collected a sum of Rs.3,06,426/- from the de-facto complainant on the promise of securing employment but subsequently cheated him. Hence, a complaint was registered against the petitioner.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is ready to repay a sum of Rs.1 lakh and further submitted that he has not committed any offence. He also stated that the petitioner is willing to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed that anticipatory bail be granted to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the petitioner had collected a total sum of Rs.3,06,426/-, of which he is ready to repay a sum of Rs.1 lakh, and the remaining amount is yet to be paid.
