2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant parked his vehicle bearing registration No.TN 15 P 8289 in front of his house and the same was found missing. Hence, the case.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He submits that he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court.. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that that there are totally four accused in this case and the petitioner is arrayed as A1 . He submits that A2 was enlarged on bail. He also submits that the accused persons committed a theft of two wheeler and from these accused, about 10 bikes have been recovered. He further submits that nine previous cases were pending against this petitioner, all are similar in nature. Hence, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.
