2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner and the defacto complainant are Trainee in the Government Hospital and the allegation is that when the defacto complainant was changing her dress, the petitioner had captured the same in his cell phone. Hence, the case.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person, he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed for grant of bail to the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police, while opposing for grant of bail to the petitioner, reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the petitioner's mobile phone has been seized.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.
