police for the offences punishable under Section 296(4), 118(1) & 351(2) of BNS 2023 in Crime No.49 of 2025, on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners were alleged to have assaulted the defacto Complainant and her son in her house and attacked them physically. They were taken to Mannargudi Government Hospital by local residents. Based on the hospital intimation and inquiry, FIR was registered.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have been falsely implicated in this case. Petitioners are ready to abide any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, the learned counsel prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that the petitioners entered into the house of the defacto Complainant assaulted her and her son which caused injuries to them. They were admitted in Hospital. He also submits that the injured discharged from the hospital. However, he vehemently opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to
