2. According to the prosecution, the petitioner is alleged to have threatened the defacto complainant and robbed a sum of Rs.1250/- at knife point. Hence, the present complaint.

3. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police opposed the grant of bail to the petitioner and submitted that the stolen money has not yet been recovered. He further submitted that the investigation is still pending. He also submitted that the petitioner has seven previous cases of a similar nature and three other cases under Section 307 IPC are pending against him.

4. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

5. Considering the fact that, even after 90 days from the date of arrest, the respondent police have not completed the investigation, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on his executing a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand only) with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of
