illegal possession of 17.5 grams of Heroin. Hence the case.

3. The contention of the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner is that the petitioner, who was arrested on 29.05.2025, is innocent and has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready to give blood surety and also ready to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this court. Hence he prayed for grant of bail to the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and opposed for granting bail to the petitioner. He further submitted that there are three accused in this case and this petitioner/A1 is the resident of Assam and from him alone, 6.2 grams of Heroin were recovered.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, the submissions made by the learned counsel appearing on either side and taking note of the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on his executing a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two blood related sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned
