2. The case of the prosecution is that the accused/petitioner, aged about 18 years, who is the uncle of the minor victim girl and resides near her house, committed penetrative sexual assault on the minor victim girl, as a result of which, she became pregnant. Hence the case.

3. The contention of the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner is that the petitioner is innocent and has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that this is the second application for bail filed by the petitioner before this Court. He also submitted that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed for the grant of bail to the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and opposed for granting bail to the petitioner. He further submitted that the fetus of the victim was aborted and the DNA report is awaited. He also submitted that the statement has been recorded from the victim girl under Section 183 BNSS.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record including the victim's statement under Section 183 BNSS.

6. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, the submission made by the learned counsel appearing on either side and taking into account the serious nature of offence alleged to have been committed by the petitioner as well as the statement of the minor victim girl, wherein, she has clearly narrated the acts of cruelty to which she was subjected, this Court is not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner.

7. Accordingly, the Criminal Original Petition stands dismissed.
