For Applicant : Rajeni Ramadass

For Respondents : J. Jayalakshmi

ABDUL QUDDHOSE.J.,

This application has been filed under Section 29 of the Arbitration and Conciliation, 1996, seeking extension of time for the arbitrator to pronounce the arbitral award by another period of six months from the date of receipt of a copy of this order.

2. This is the first application filed by the applicant, seeking extension of time for the arbitrator to pronounce the arbitral award. As seen from the affidavit of service filed in support of this application, the arbitrator has already started recording oral evidence.

3. The learned counsel for the respondents, who is appearing through video conferencing has served a copy of the counter on the learned counsel

WEB COPY for the applicant and the same is placed on record before this Court today.

As seen from the counter, the objections raised by the respondents pertain to the merits of the applicant's claim. Once sufficient cause is shown by the applicant for seeking extension of time for the arbitrator to pronounce the arbitral award, this Court will have to grant extension as prayed for in this application.

4. In the affidavit filed in support of this application, sufficient cause has been shown for seeking extension of time as prayed for in this application. Accordingly, this application is allowed as prayed for by granting extension of time for the arbitrator to pronounce the arbitral award by another period of six months from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. However, liberty is granted to the respondents to raise all objections with regard to merits of the applicant's claim before the arbitrator.
