2. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person, he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that there was some dispute between the victim's family which has been projected against the petitioner that he has committed rape on the victim girl. Hence, he prayed for grant of bail to the petitioner.

3. Learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that the petitioner had taken the victim girl to his house and attempted to commit rape. He submitted that the victim girl had refused to record the statement.

4. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, submissions made by the learned counsels on either side, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on his executing a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only)
