WEB COPY 2. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

3. The contention of the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner is that the allegation in the First Information Report is that the petitioner had harassed and blackmailed the de facto complainant on several occasions by sending morphed images and making phone calls from various numbers. He further stated that the present complaint was lodged as an afterthought, following the earlier complaint made by the petitioner against the de facto complainant before the Chandigarh Police in Crime No.157 of 2024 dated 31.12.2024 for the offence under Sections 376(2)(n), 328 of IPC and Section 67 of IT Act, which has been taken cognizance in S.C.No.120 of 2025 before the Additional Sessions Court, Chandigarh. Hence, he prayed to quash the First Information Report in Crime No.6 of 2025.

4. On a perusal of the entire allegations in the FIR, this Court is of the view that the allegations require to be unearthed and the case has to be properly investigated. Merely on the basis of the earlier complaint, the present case cannot be quashed and this Court cannot conduct a roving

5. In view of the above, this Court finds no merits in the petition under the First Information Report. Accordingly, the Criminal Original stands dismissed. The respondent Police are directed to conduct the investigation in accordance with law and file the final report at the earliest. Presently, the connected miscellaneous petition is closed.
