2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner got forged NOC from the respondent police with the help of A1, who is the Head Constable had forged the signature of Superintendent of Police. Hence, the case.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person, he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that A1 in this case, who had forged the signature of the Superintendent of Police, had now been let out on bail. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed for grant of bail to the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and opposed for grant of bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.
