2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with other accused kidnapped the defacto complainant's wife in a car. Hence, the case.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person, he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed for grant of bail to the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and opposed for grant of bail to the petitioner. He further submitted that the victim was now been rescued and she is in a home, since she refused to go with the defacto complainant.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.
