2. The contention of the petitioner is that the accused and the deceased are relatives and there is a property dispute and due to which, the deceased had demolished the cemetery of one of the accused, when the same was questioned, there was a push and pull, which ensued into an attack and the deceased died. Hence, the case.

3. Learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that A1's grandfather was buried in a cemetery and it was demolished by the deceased, when it was questioned by A1, they attacked each other and the deceased sustained injuries and died.

4. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, submissions made by the learned counsels on either side, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on his executing a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only)
