2. The petitioners, the State respondents as well as the private respondents state that an enquiry was held on 04.11.2025. The petitioners as well as the 8th respondent were present, but the enquiry was adjourned to enable filing of rejoinders.

3. Mr.C.Prakasam, states that as many as 250 persons have come to the office of the 2nd respondent, in order to pressurize the said officer not to pass any orders in favour of the 8th respondent.

4. Mr.P.Nethaji, vehemently denies his submission and states that only 9 of the petitioners were present on that day. He also pleads that the petitioners did not seek for time, but the concerned Officer suo motu adjourned the matter by two weeks and calling upon the respective parties to file a rejoinder.
