2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner and the victim girl had physical relationship and had taken some photographs. Thereafter, the petitioner had threatened the victim girl that he will upload the said photographs in the social media in order to harass her on refusing to marry her. Hence the case.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person, he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that marriage has taken place and the victim girl and her husband said to have threatened the petitioner. Hence, he prayed for grant of bail to the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police, while opposing for grant of bail to the petitioner, reiterated the prosecution case. He further submitted that the mobile phone has been seized from the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, submissions made by the learned counsels on either side, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
