consecutively. Aggrieved by the same, the present appeal has been filed.

3. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioners and the learned Additional Public Prosecutor for the respondent.

4. This Court finds no reasons to suspend the sentence since the Trial Court has gone through the evidence in its entirety and also finds that the petitioners have committed very serious and heinous offence as against the deceased and as such she committed suicide. However, a perusal of evidence of P.W.1 clearly shows that even before her suicide, the deceased was beaten up by the petitioners herein.

5. In the result, the petition for suspension of sentence is dismissed.
