Minerals [Development & Regulation] Act, 1957 in Crime No.300 of 2025, on the file of the respondent, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners were found in illegal transportation of 1 unit of black sand. Hence the case.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have been falsely implicated in this case. He further, on instruction, submitted that without prejudice to defence, the petitioners are prepared to deposit considerable amount to any charitable Organization or Association. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and opposed for granting anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case,
