2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant had borrowed a sum of Rs.11,50,0000/- from the petitioner and thereafter, he had absconded, but his mother is residing in the house constructed by the defacto complainant in the farm and the petitioner after finishing his farm work had enquired about the defacto complainant, for which, there arose a quarrel and further allegation that petitioner had attacked the defacto complainant's mother with spade, due to which, she sustained injuries and died. Hence, the case.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person, he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed for grant of bail to the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and opposed for grant of bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.
