2.The case of the prosecution is that, due to previous enmity the petitioner along with A2 assaulted the defacto-complainant with iron rod in which he sustained injury in his head and fingers. Further the A1 stabbed the defacto-complainant with knife and threatened with dire consequences. Thereafter, the defacto-complainant admitted to Government Hospital, Dharmapuri. Hence the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that custodial interrogation of the petitioner is not required. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that injured has been discharged from hospital. However, opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard the learned counsels and perused the materials available on record.
