2. The case of the prosecution is that the accused were found to be in illegal possession of 24.230 kilograms of banned tobacco products. Hence, the case.

3. The contention of the petitioner is that the petitioner is innocent and has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court. He also submitted that without prejudice to defence, the petitioner is prepared to deposit a considerable amount to any charitable Organization or Association. Hence, he prayed for grant of bail.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and opposed for granting bail to the petitioner. He further submitted that there is no previous case against the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the submissions made by the learned counsel appearing on either sides and taking note of the nature of the allegations and taking note of the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
