2. The case of the prosecution is that the first accused, on the false promise of marriage, forcibly had physical relationship with the de facto complainant/victim. Further, the petitioner/A2 herein sought sexual favours from the victim and attempted to misbehave with her. Hence the case.

3. The contention of the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner is that the petitioner is innocent and has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioner, who is a friend of A1, has nothing to do with the alleged offence and that he has been implicated only because he stayed along with A1 and de facto complainant in a hotel at Thiruvannamiyur, in this case. He also submitted that the petitioner is a college student pursuing his degree in Business Administration at Thakkalay and is ready to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed for the grant of bail.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent Police reiterated the prosecution case and opposed for granting bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, the submission made by the learned counsel appearing on either side and taking note of the
