ORDER

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 191(2), 191(3), 296(b), 118(1), 351(3) and 115(2) of BNS, 2023, in Crime No.222 of 2025, on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that one Jagannathan gave a complaint before the respondent police on 19.06.2025 at about 02.30 afternoon, while stopping the temple Car, the petitioner and others made wordy quarrel and attacked one Chandran with stone and given life threatening to the defacto complainant group. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and a false case has been foisted against the petitioner. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, prayed for granting anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police while opposing for granting anticipatory bail to the petitioner, reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the injured has been discharged from the hospital.

5.Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) for the respondent Police and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the submissions made on either side and the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
