“28. In view of the above discussion, this Court pass the following orders:

(i) The GST Act permits only for issuance of show cause notice based on the tax period. Therefore, if the annual return is filed, the entire year would be considered as a tax period and accordingly, the show cause notice shall be issued based on the said annual returns.

(ii) If show cause notice is issued before the filing of annual returns, the same can be issued based on the filing of monthly returns;

(iii) If show cause notice is issued after the filing of annual returns or after the commencement of limitation, the said notice shall be issued based on the annual returns with regard to the relevant financial year.

(iv) No show cause notice can be clubbed and issued for more than one financial year since the same is impermissible in law.

(v) In these cases, without any jurisdiction, the impugned show cause notices/orders came to be issued/passed for more than one financial year, which is impermissible in law and hence, the same is liable to be
