The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 465, 468, 472, 471 r/w 511 IPC in Crime No.01 of 2024 on the file of the respondent Police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that, the accused persons joined together and issued fake degree certificate, as obtained from Annamalai University to other accused persons after receiving money and further some of the fake degree certificates were found lying on the road. Further, a fake certificate in the name of one of the victims Hemavathi was recovered during the course of investigation by the respondent police; that since the said Hemavathi stated the petitioner's name in her statement, he was also summoned under Section 41A of Cr.P.C in Crime No.01 of 2024, therefore the petitioner apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner herein is running an authorized study centre at Thoothukudi for all distance education courses of the Manonmanium Sundaranar University and the said Hemavathi also running a study centre at different location approached the petitioner herein for an admission of BBA course through distance education at Annamalai University; that thereby the petitioner directed her to approach one Sathyaseelan of Kancheepuram, who is running the study centre for Annamalai University, besides that the petitioner was not aware about the fake degree certificate and he was not involved in any of the offence; and that the petitioner is ready to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court, hence sought for anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Public Prosecutor (Puducherry) appearing for the respondent police while opposing the anticipatory bail to the petitioner reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the petitioner has no previous antecedents; and that the investigation of the case is pending.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of this case, nature of allegation, the petitioner has no previous antecedents and taking note of the fact that the case is of the year 2024, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
