2. The case of the prosecution is that the accused had abused the de facto complainant and robbed a sum of Rs.390/- from him at knife point and threatened him with dire consequences. Hence the case.

3. The contention of the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner is that the petitioner is innocent and has been falsely implicated in this case since he has several previous cases. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed for the grant of bail to the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and opposed for the grant of bail to the petitioner stating that the petitioner is a habitual offender having 21 previous cases.
