3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner states that the petitioner has been falsely implicated and nothing to do with the offence. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed for grant of bail to the petitioner.

4. However, the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police states that this petitioner has already fallen under the adverse notice of the respondent police and there is one previous case for offence under NDPS Act. Hence, he opposed to grant of bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.
