Applicant(s)

PRAYER: The application has been filed under Order XIV Rule 8 of Original Side Rules read with Order VI Rule 17 of Civil Procedure Code to grant the Petitioner leave to amend the Petition and Affidavit of Assets in O.P. No.299 of 2022.

For Applicant(s): M/s.S.P.Arthi

ORDER

This application has been filed to grant leave to amend the petition and affidavit of assets in O.P. No.299 of 2022 and to include the deposits and also to amend the value of assets, in the Letters of Administration issued on 18.12.2023.

2. According to the applicant, she is the petitioner in the main Original Petition and the said main Original petition was filed seeking Letters of Administration in respect of the Will of the deceased namely Mrs. R. Bama and this Court, through an order dated 11.01.2023, granted Letters of Administration in favour of the applicant. As per the Will, the deceased had made specific provisions for her immovable property at T.Nagar as well as in respect of the deposits held by her with the Tamil Nadu State Apex Co-operative Bank Limited and the same were bequeathed in favour of the applicant. At the time of filing the the above petition, the applicant did not have any details with her pertaining to the deposits made by the deceased with the Tamil Nadu State Apex Co-operative Bank Ltd., and hence, the applicant could not include the same in the affidavit of assets. She was working in Singapore and had serious health issues and therefore, she was unable to visit Chennai or Bangalore due to her health condition and recently, she had disposed the immovable property bequeathed in her favour and cleared the house of all its belongings. At that time, she found that the receipts of deposits made jointly by her aunt and uncle with the Tamil Nadu State Apex Co-operative Bank Limited at Thyagaraya Nagar Branch. In the strength of the Will executed by her aunt and uncle, she has inherited the deposits so made by them and she is entitled to the said deposits. Therefore, the petition is filed to amend the affidavit of assets and consequently the Registry may be directed to carry out the appropriate amendment in the Letters of Administration. Her uncle had also bequeathed all his assets in her favour by his Will dated 20.04.2010, for which she was issued Letters of Administration.

3. There is no respondent in this application.

4. This Court heard the applicant's side and perused the records.

5. On a perusal of records, it is observed that already the applicant filed the main original petition in O.P.No.299 of 2022 for grant of Letters of Administration and the same was allowed by this Court through an order dated 11.01.2023. According to the applicant, at the time of filing the said Original petition. All the properties available on that date were included in the petition affidavit of assets. But recently, she found out some deposits of receipts in the name of Testator and those deposits receipts have to be included in the affidavit of assets and therefore, she has filed this application.

6. The applicant has also produced the copies of deposits receipts and therefore, it is necessary to include those receipts, thereby, it is appropriate to allow this application.

7. Accordingly, this application is allowed. The Registry is directed to carry out necessary amendment including the deposits receipts and to amend the value of assets, in the Letters of Administration issued on 18.12.2023.
